Prayers and Readings

The Collect for Today

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

The Short Collect

God of constant mercy, who sent your Son to save us:
remind us of your goodness, increase your grace within us, that our thankfulness may grow, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Proverbs 9:1 – 6

Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn her seven pillars.
She has slaughtered her animals, she has mixed her wine,
she has also set her table.
She has sent out her servant-girls, she calls from the highest places in the town,
'You that are simple, turn in here!'
To those without sense she says,
'Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed.
Lay aside immaturity, and live, and walk in the way of insight.'

Ephesians 5:15 – 20

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

John 6:52 – 58

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?'. So, Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I live in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.'

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Food bank

Many thanks to those of you who have supported the Food bank over recent months. The West Berkshire Food banks are experiencing larger than usual requests for support which does happen at this time of year when it is the school holiday season and families whose children normally receive free school dinners struggle to provide sufficient for their children. As the rains have come at last, those of you who grow your own vegetables may have some excess runner beans or courgettes which could go to help those people at this time. All donations gratefully received.

Milk Bottle Tops

The Catholic Church also receives the Blue and Green milk bottle tops for a charity, so rather than throw them away, if you want to contribute to this please put them in a bag and place them into the Foodbank box in church.
Thank you
