

If you have information about a safeguarding situation where a child or adult is in immediate danger, or requires immediate medical attention, call emergency services on 999.

The police are the only agency that are able to act immediately to ensure a child is safe and protected from harm.

If there is no risk of immediate harm:

If you do not think there is a risk of immediate harm, you must speak to an official about your concern as soon as possible.

In the first instance contact the relevant Parish Safeguarding Officer:
